

Webselect Ltd Environmental Policy Statement

Webselect Ltd cares about our environment and is committed to ensuring our impact is as small as possible in all that we do.

In addition to our stated environmental policy we plant 5 new trees in the south west of England for every new web site we build through our partners Tree Appeal, a scheme supported by Professor David Bellamy.

We recognise that we all have a part to play in keeping our world a fine place to live. This policy is our commitment to our environment.
